Lesson for May 10

PHILIP AND THE ETHIOPIAN TREASURER

LESSON TEXT—Acts 8:26-39.
GOLDEN TEXT—"The entrance of Thy words giveth light."—Ps. 119:130.
PRIMARY TOPIC—A Man Did What God Told Him.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Philip and the Ethiopian.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How Philip Won the Ethiopian.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Use of the Bible in Evangelism.

I. Philip Meeting the Ethiopian (vv. 26-30a).

1. Leaving Work by Divine Direction (v. 26).

The Lord called Philip away from a great work in Samaria and specifically directed him to this man. Also, Israelites be obeyed the divine command not knowing why he should leave the work in Samaria and go into a desert place. As he journeyed on by faith he espied the state chariot of the Ethiopian treasurer. The Spirit of God directed him to go near and join himself to the chariot. The actual question put to the treasurer caused him a seat by the side of this dignified officer. The mission which it first seemed so unpromising was now clear.

2. An Officer of State Seeking the Way of Salvation (vv. 27-28).

The Ethiopian had been to Jerusalem to worship. Despite his high official position he was not ashamed of the worship of God. The journey from far off country required much hardship and expense, but to the one whose soul yearns after God, this is all joy.

3. A Providential Meeting in the Desert (vv. 29-30).

In coming together of these two men was clearly the predetermined way of God.

II. Philip Preaching to the Ethiopian (vv. 30b-35).

1. The Ethiopian's Employment on the Way (v. 30).

His occupation at the time of this meeting was reading the Word of God. At the invitation of the Ethiopian Philip joined himself to the chariot and found him reading, from the 53d chapter of Isaiah. This is a most excellent way "to spend one's time while traveling."

2. The Absolute Need of a Preacher (v. 31).

The Ethiopian was reading one of the clearest testimonies to the Messiah in the Old Testament, yet he was not able to get anything out of it. The fact that the Ethiopian, a great statesman, needed an interpreter of the Scriptures, even such a plain passage as the 53d chapter of Isaiah, shows the absolute need of a preacher. The gospel must be experienced before one can be a witness to its saving power. The human mind is blind to spiritual things, making the work of an evangelist indispensible. If a statesman of this rank was unable to grasp the meaning of such a clear passage it should not be thought strange that for the rank and file of men a guide is needed. God has designed that through the foolishness of preaching the world should be saved. Preaching the Word of God will always be necessary.

3. Philip's Message (vv. 32-35).

He began at the Scriptures which he had read and preaching unto him Jesus. This shows us that the person represented in the 53d chapter of Isaiah as suffering instead of others was Jesus. Instead of Israel, also that the central theme of the preacher's message should be Jesus. He did not preach Jesus as a great teacher, but as a Savior who had suffered and died instead of sinners. He preached Him as the one who had offered Himself as a ransom.

III. Philip Baptized the Ethiopian (vv. 36-38).

As a result of Philip's preaching the eunuch proposed baptism. When Christ is truly preached, men naturally desire to confess Him in baptism. Where this feeling is lacking, the gospel in its fullness is evidently not preached. The Ethiopian might have offered many excuses for neglecting this important ordinance, but like every man who is honest before God he was ready at once to render obedience. The proof that men really believe in Jesus is their willingness to render obedience to His Word. It is faith in Christ that saves, but those who have genuine faith desire to seal it in baptism. Having secured from the Ethiopian the proper confession Philip baptized him.

IV. The Ethiopian Rejoicing (v. 39).

Confession of Christ always brings joy. Those who obey the command-ment of the Lord can go on their way rejoicing.

Whom Shall We Have For Governor?

Tune—"Auld Lang Syne"
Whom shall we have for Governor?
Ask little birds that sing
"The Mapp man is our only choice"
From out the bushes ring.

Whom shall we have for Governor?
Ask little fish that swim.
"The man who's tried to boss our lives"
They shout without delay.

Whom shall we have for Gov. now?
Ask teach-ers in the school.
They say: "The man who's made for right,
The one we want to vo-te."

Whom shall we have for Governor?
Ask mothers of our land.
"The man who would protect our boys
Is the for whom we'll stand."

Whose e-lec-tion-ti ver-ni-t
God people for and Wide
Decree they'll vote for Walter Mapp
Because he's on our side.

From mountain side to ocean wave
We mean to work and plan
That our next Governor shall be
A good Tidewater man.

VERA

The bountiful rains we have been having have given our farmers new life and they are as busy as a hen with one chick planting corn and getting tobacco in the ground for next season. Our farmers seem to be getting ready for a large crop of tobacco. The Hatchers have built two barns and several are contemplating adding to their stock of barns.

Elwood Haynes, the inventor of the "horseless carriage" or what is now the automobile, died last week. Less than 31 years ago he drove his "contraption" to Chicago and was told by the police "to get it off the streets", now, there are 17,000,000 automobiles in use and they are being manufactured by the million each year. What wonderful evidence that the Lord is taking up His reign. Soon the "Prince of this world" will be chained, and in the time of refreshing will have come. "And when this cometh ye shall know that I am the Lord God", Ezeh. 24-24. "Many shall run to and fro and knowledge shall be increased. Daniel 12-4.

We have just learned that Mrs. Bryant Ferguson of Lynchburg, who is visiting her son, Daniel, had a fall and it is thought her hip is broken. We hope it will not be as serious as feared. Mrs. Ferguson is quite an old lady and her friends are fearful of results.

Roy Gunter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gunter, who has been working in Lynchburg, is reported very much indisposed and is expected home to recuperate.

Messrs. Leighton and Lawrence Hatcher have much cause for gratitude, last Friday they were going to Lynchburg in truck with some calves; Mr. Leighton, who was at the wheel, took his eyes off the road for an instant when he realized he was going over a 15-foot embankment with-con-he-was at as-per-ter to render obedience. The proof that men really believe in Jesus is their willingness to render obedience to His Word. It is faith in Christ that saves, but those who have genuine faith desire to seal it in baptism. Men and Money Make this Bank Secure.

THERE are two ways of measuring the strength and standing of a bank. In the first place money resources—capital and surplus—give it financial strength.

In the second place—and perhaps even more important—are men, the officers and directors. They give the bank character, determine and execute its policies.

This is a strong bank, a helpful bank because it has ample resources, and a personnel of proven character and ability.
